Endangered Species Day Celebration

By Zoom at 6:00 pm MT - Scroll down for Zoom hyperlink and codes.

Endangered Species Day is a celebration of our nation's wildlife & wild places. Started in 2006 by the US Congress, Endangered Species Day (ESD) is the third Friday of May. We have celebrated ESD in Rapid City with a multi-group sponsored event for 16 years.

6:00 pm MT - Introduction by Sponsors

6:05 pm - 7:00 pm MT - Speaker: Christopher Swanson, Field Supervisor, North and South Dakota Ecological Services, US Fish and Wildlife Service - He will speak on - "Recovery of Endangered Species across South Dakota: latest updates on species conservation, emerging challenges, and ESA regulatory revisions."

7:00 pm - 7:55 pm MT - Speaker: Eileen Dowd Stukel, Senior Wildlife Diversity Biologist, SD Game, Fish and Parks - Eileen will discuss the 10 year review and revision of the State's Wildlife Action Plan & the biennial review by GFP Commission of our state listed species. She will provide a brief update on status of Recovering America's Wildlife Act in the US Congress.

5 minute break

8:00 pm - 8:55 pm MT - Speakers: Chalmer Combellick, Wildlife Biologist, Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe - Chalmer will speak on tribal efforts to recover federally and state listed species and other species culturally significant to the tribes.
